

2019 Cardboard Box Derby Entry Form

The Cardboard Box Race will be held on March 24, 2019 on the bottom of the East Slope. Cardboard Box Racers must be made out of cardboard only. No wood, metal or plastic can be used. Cardboard may be taped, glued or sewn together. All metal staples in a cardboard box must be covered with duct tape on both sides. Cardboard Box Racers will be inspected before your run. Results of the inspection by the judge will be final. The categories will be a two person cardboard racer or a four person cardboard racer. The cardboard racers will be judged on style, speed through the track and durability how much of the racer get over the finish line. Prizes will be awarded to the top three cardboard racers in each category. A track will be set up with snow burms on either side. The racer will push or pull their racers to the top of the track. Each person entered in the race MUST fill an entry form and sign the Liability Release Form. Persons under 18 must have a parent or guardian sign the form to COMPETE. Helmets are strongly recommended.
